WINTER IN FORSYTH. Forsyth County has selected Winter Construction Co. to build two recreation centers, one located in Fowler Park (near Highway 9 and Castleberry Road) and the other in the future Buice Recreation Center (at the intersection of Nichols and Old Atlanta roads).

The recreation centers, which will each be 42,000 square feet upon completion, are scheduled to open in early 2012.

Total project build-out is expected to cost $9.9 million.

Sutton Architectural Services is the architect for the project.
