Winter Construction Has Topped Out the AC Marriott Hotel at Phipps Plaza

(October 27, 2015) ATLANTA, GA - Winter Construction has reached a major milestone with the topping out of the AC Marriott Hotel at Phipps Plaza. The main structure is complete and the top slab has been poured. The focus is now shifting from the structure to the construction of the building skin and finishing the interior. Carlos Asensio, of Noble Investment says, "Winter Construction has done an extremely good job in coordinating all activities for this project to get us to structure top-out."

The new six-story, select service hotel, which includes 166 guest rooms, the AC Lounge, 2,500 square feet of flexible meeting space, the AC Library, health and fitness areas, indoor pool and a two level parking deck that provides a walking connection for pedestrians to Phipps Plaza is estimated to be completed in the Spring of 2016.

AC Marriott at Phipps Plaza will be the first AC Marriott in Georgia. Founded in 1998 by Antonio Catalán, AC Hotels has more than 75 properties in Spain, Italy, France, Portugal, New Orleans, Kansas City, Miami Beach, Chicago, and National Harbor in Washington, DC to name a few. AC Hotels and Marriott formed a joint venture in 2011, leveraging the unique style and design of these upscale urban-inspired hotels with the portfolio power and distribution of Marriott International. AC Hotels by Marriott pride themselves on being modern hotels with Spanish roots and European design. The aim is to make travel experiences seamless, comfortable, and affordable.
