Winter Construction is excited to announce its new Special Projects Group.

ATLANTA (October 1, 2008) - Winter Construction recently expanded its services to offer a Special Projects Group.

The Special Projects Group will assist clients in all phases of interiors, renovations and additions projects as well as select ground-up construction projects. The Special Projects Group will focus on our core markets: corporate, retail, k-12, higher education, hospitality and government. Winter Construction's Special Projects Group customers demand and will receive "best in class" performance, including speed to market delivery and precision quality. Winter Construction has hired Christian Jacobsen, a fifteen year veteran of interiors, to run the Special Projects Group.

About Winter Construction Company:

Founded in October 1978, Winter is a privately owned and operated Atlanta based general contracting company. We provide construction and environmental services to clients in the hospitality, retail, government, education, corporate/office, religious, healthcare, historic restoration, industrial and multifamily markets throughout the Southeastern and Mid-Atlantic states. Winter Construction has consistently been ranked in the ENR Top 400 Contractors in the US for the past 25+ years. For more information visit: www.winter-construction.com.
