

Winter Sizes Up With the Construction Come Back Winter hires 20 new employees.

ATLANTA (October 18, 2013) In the last four to six months Winter Construction added 20 new employees and promoted three employees in the Operations, Preconstruction and Administrative departments.

“The last four months have been very promising in terms of the activity we’re seeing in the industry, especially the retail and hospitality markets, which have been slow over the last five years”, said Tom Nichols, EVP at Winter Construction.

Nichols continued, “It was a tough couple of years but we’re family here at Winter and families get through tough times. The people who work here not only represent some of the best talent in the industry but some of the best people in the neighborhood. We’re excited to bring on more people that exemplify the Winter “Good Experience Builders” brand.”
